Lena Blain

Lena Blain is a passionate pianist and music teacher. She has a Bachelor of Music degree from Calgary Alberta, with a major in piano performance and pedagogy. She has been teaching piano and theory lessons at Time Music Studios in Calgary as well as out of her home for the past 6 years. Lena also worked as a Worship Pastor at Northern Hills Church for two years before moving to BC. For the past year, she has been teaching private lessons in Surrey. Lena also works in Abbotsford as the Worship Coordinator at Living Hope CRC where she coaches and directs 7 different teams of musicians and volunteers as well as spearheads the planning for the weekly Sunday services. As a music teacher, Lena has successfully prepared multiple students for RCM examinations up to the grade 9 level. She has taught basic and intermediate rudiments and group classes for young children at a daycare. Her passion is to create lasting relationships with her students where they feel motivated and excited to learn about music. Lena strives to encourage her students to succeed by giving them positive encouragement, clear expectations, and goals to reach. She also includes fun and exciting repertoire that students can relate to from their favourite movies as well as from popular artists on the radio.
